

NICHOLAS WITHERICK

Transformational Leadership Consultant, Speaker,
Podcast Host, Author, Managing Director & Founder -
E.A.G.L.E. Transformational Coaching

Nicholas Witherick is the Director and Founder of EAGLE Transformational Coaching which is dedicated to raising the bar of Leadership across various sectors. His passion lies in helping individuals and organisations discover their Leadership potential by reshaping and applying their everyday habits and nurturing effective, sustainable, and confident leaders.

EAGLE Transformational Coaching works with individuals and groups within and outside of business to create sound decision-making processes with people new to Leadership and new Leadership roles, raise and maintain a supportive leadership structure to develop long-term morale, productivity and full potential of a leader, team, workforce or peer group.

Education, Credentials & Trainings

- Spent 10 years in Education teaching Religious Studies and Philosophy & Ethics, fostering the leadership skills of GCSE and A-Level students
- Became a leader within the Heritage Sector working with committed and driven volunteers in historic cultural sites in England
- Spent 9 years as an Estate Manager for the Victoria & Albert Museum London, working with some of the world's greatest conservators, curators, and designers
- Founded EAGLE Transformational Coaching as a practical action to create great leaders
- Currently serves as a business coach, leadership coach and speaker
- Author of The "Life I Lead" book
- Host of "The Life I Lead" Podcast
- Creator of the introductory leadership course "Below the Tip of the Iceberg"

Sample Interview Topics

- Are leadership structures in the workplace still viable?
- Are life habits reflected in my leadership?
- Does democracy still work?
- Can all people be leaders?
- How do new leaders navigate the transition?
- How do existing leaders grow in effectivity?
- The demise of political leadership
- How does effective leadership change society?

